Take Control of Your Short Game with the Exotics CB PROs Forged Wedge

Batavia, IL (February 6, 2014) – The new Exotics CB PROs wedge gives you pro-like control around the greens. This is the first forged wedge in the Exotics line, and it is a deadly combination.

The CB Pros wedge series is forged from 1025 carbon steel to provide the ultimate feedback for the perfect touch. Designers precision-milled the MONGO grooves which feature the most aggressive legal sharpness and width allowed by the USGA. The MONGO grooves are layered with 28 micro-grooves to provide maximum face roughness for the ultimate control in your short game.

Versatility is maximized through the tour-grind beveled sole. A custom sole grind, perfected by David Glod, president and chief designer, increases the versatility to meet the needs of PGA Tour players and good amateurs alike. The eliminated bounce from the heel and toe for to allow players to easily open the face or shut it down for the ultimate in shot-making ability. It all combines to give you the most precise scoring club available.

The Exotics CB PROs wedges feature Tour Edge's lifetime warranty and 30-day play guarantee. It is available in True Temper Dynamic Gold wedge shafts. Available in 50, 52, 54, 56, and 60 degrees with a suggested retail price of $99.99 steel, $119 graphite.
